Back to Creativity Club is really a particular Club with special rules and members. The Club focuses on the regeneration of artistic energy and to the rebirth of the creative power. The members are professional artists from the whole spectrum of the arts, especially the world of the theatre. Under the artistic direction of the Master Jurij Alschitz they will share a different kind of understanding of a holiday and a different concept of artistic relaxation.

Back to Creativity Club proposes an unusual vacation program between the theatre seasons which offers actors, directors and artists from different countries an opportunity to stimulate their soul, their spirit, their courage and creative power, and, just as important, their physical bodies. The action of creation demands an extremely high input of physical and mental energy. However, the creative power of the artist is not inexhaustible. As with other professions, artists know the so - called "burn out syndrome". Changes of surroundings, new ideas and inspiration can help to rejuvenate any artist.

Back to Creativity Club provides daily training, which will concentrate on aspects of one's artistic personality and energy. We will work on the metaphysical world of the text in theatre. A metaphysical exploration in art and theatre can provide the artist with new impulses for his/her creative work.

The accommodation provided is a comfortable house surrounded by the plants and trees of an idyllic garden located 500m from a sandy beach. The lessons will take place in the garden of the house, and there will be enough time to enjoy the beautiful and famous sea of Sardinia and to take long and relaxing walks on the surrounding hills, in a few words providing ideal conditions for artistic rest.

The concept of Back to Creativity is based on to the idea of a Club for artists where they can regenerate their energy, but at the same time the Club functions as a meeting point where artists can discuss and share ideas on different projects. The idea is to create a special place for relaxing and at the same time a spiritual holiday where artistic exchange is enhanced.
