

ALthattheatre - Jurij Alschitz proposes a revolution in theatre education.

A multi-year education is reduced to three months by using Quantum Pedagogy: 40 days online and 40 days in concentrated atmosphere with an international team of teachers in the Italian mountains, March-May 2020.

Is this an education or continuous training? It is a new format for self-education for young people as well as for experienced actors. It is the way to self-creation as an artist.

How can I find out more about it?

What drives me on stage as an actor? Is it the myth of humanity with its dream to create another world? If so, what is my vision of my theater?

What about the creation of the artists? Whose creation are you?

From whom do I expect to get my education - in German: Bildung? Crafts and facts can be taught and passed on, but what about me as an artist? Much can be passed on, but "knowledge" arises only in myself.

We need a completely new approach and that is the Quantum Leap: from the accumulation of knowledge to the creation of new contexts. The future has begun.

ALthattheatre builds on impulses. The resonance leads to the central source of energy: creativity.

The Impulse Seminar for ALthattheatre focusses on the central point of any artistic work: what is my vision? For that I have to penetrate into my center; to the core of my artistic identity. It holds the energy for my entire life.

Which tasks do I propose to myself? How do I develop my view and discover the essentials? How do I recognize the creative potential in every detail? My perception will transform. I will find my own individual way of performing on stage. I form myself - in the full sense of the word.

Creativity defines the identity as an artist. It guarantees the inner freedom.

Every interested theater person is welcome in this seminar!
